

Byfords Food Hall

At this difficult time Byford's catering service is on hand to offer our support and to ensure that all of your catering requests are dealt with efficiently, promptly and with the attention to detail upon which Byfords has built its reputation. We are available to cater for small and large groups, at home, church or at the venue of your choice.

All of our menus and services are designed to be flexible and you may be assured that the needs of your family and friends will be attended to with the upmost professionalism, care and respect.

We can coordinate arrangements with your venue or director to ensure that everything runs smoothly on the day – no request is too small and we are therefore pleased to assure you of our very best attention at all times.

We can set up while you are out at the service and be ready for your return with tea and coffee fresh in the pot, beautiful cakes, sandwiches and other delights displayed for your guests to sample. To take the strain, our uniformed staff can be on hand to keep everyone topped up, and furthermore clear away and do all the washing up once your guests have departed.
